

The National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) assesses reading in two contexts described in the NAEP framework: reading for literary experience and to gain information. The NAEP reading scale ranges from 0 to 500.

Overall Reading Results for Pennsylvania

- In 2003, the average scale score for fourth-grade students in Pennsylvania was 219. This was not found to be significantly different¹ from the average score in 2002 (221), and was not found to be significantly different from the average score in 1992 (221).
- Pennsylvania's average score (219) in 2003 was not found to be significantly different from that of the nation's public schools (216).
- Of the 53 states and jurisdictions² that participated in the 2003 fourth-grade assessment, students' average scale scores in Pennsylvania were higher than those in 15 jurisdictions, not significantly different from those in 22 jurisdictions, and lower than those in 15 jurisdictions.
- The percentage of students in Pennsylvania who performed at or above the NAEP Proficient level was 33 percent in 2003. This percentage was not found to be significantly different from 2002 (34 percent), and was not found to be significantly different from 1992 (32 percent).

Reading Scale Scores at Selected Percentiles

An examination of scores at different percentiles on the 0–500 NAEP reading scale at each grade indicates how well students at lower, middle, and higher levels of the distribution performed.

The estimate rounds to zero.

--- Reporting standards not met; sample size insufficient to permit a reliable estimate.

* Significantly different from 2003.

↑ Significantly higher than, ↓ lower than 2002.

¹ Comparisons (higher/lower/not different) are based on statistical tests. The .05 level was used for testing statistical significance. Performance comparisons may be affected by differences in exclusion rates for students with disabilities and limited-English-proficient students in the NAEP samples and changes in sample sizes. NAEP sample sizes have increased since 2002 compared to previous years, resulting in smaller detectable differences than in previous assessments.

² "Jurisdictions" includes participating states and other jurisdictions (such as the District of Columbia and the Department of Defense Dependents Schools). NOTE: Detail may not sum to totals because of rounding, and because the "Information not available" category for Free/reduced-price lunch is not displayed. Statistical comparisons are calculated on the basis of unrounded scale scores or percentages.
